

Parwich Primary School News 33

11 May 2009

Dear Parents,

Many thanks to all those parents that have contacted school regarding the plea for support in last week's newsletter, it has been very reassuring to hear your ideas and offers of help.

Don't forget this week:

SAT's Tests for all Junior children - please ensure children are here everyday on time to prevent any disruptions or upset.

Tuesday 12th May - Mrs Black is holding a Literacy session for all infant parents, please see reminder below.

Wednesday 13th May - Jump Rope for Heart Skipping Workshop. A fundraising opportunity and a chance to get fit - please come along and join in. Infant sessions are in the morning from 10.30am onwards followed by our juniors after lunch from 1.30pm onwards. This event is in preparation for a future fundraiser.

KS1 Literacy Mornings

Parents of children in years 1 & 2 are invited to join our literacy session on Tuesday morning, 12 May, from 9 - 10.30am. There will be an opportunity to find out about reading and writing at our school.

Uniform Order

Uniforms are ordered by Mrs Alison Buckley (PTA), 5 West View, Parwich. Tel: 390245. Please fill in the form and pass to Alison or hand them into school and we will pass them on for you. The new logo will be on the sweatshirts etc and they will be the same price. Orders need to be passed to Alison by Wednesday 20 May 2009 please. There will not be another order until later in the autumn term.

Best wishes

Caroline Rodgers
