

Parwich Primary School News 38

16 June 2009

Dear Parents,

Apologies for the grammar and punctuation mistakes in Friday's note home; Gremlins invaded the office and poor Mrs Warner hasn't been the same since!

Thank you for returning your questionnaires, we received 17 out of a possible 32 replies - the results are being collated and will be reported next week.

PTA

Parwich Wakes Tombola - If anyone has any items suitable for a tombola please pass to Denise Ball or to school by Wednesday 24 June. We will be holding a tombola on Wakes Saturday if you wish to show your support. Thank you

Bags2School - Thank you to everyone who contributed items towards this collection, we made £80.00.

Headlice in School

Please ensure all children with long hair wear it tied back, there seems to be a real problem with headlice at the moment. The health advice is that schools do not send 'panic' letters but send regular reminders. Please check long and short hair regularly to prevent infection.

School Photographer

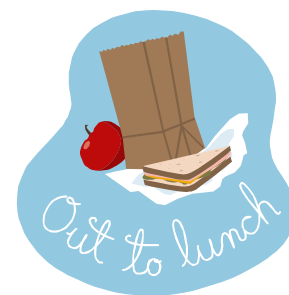

Thursday 25th June from 8.30am, please arrive at school if you would like a younger sibling to be involved.

Don't forget we are attempting to break a Guinness Book of Records 'Walking Bus', please meet us down at the tennis courts for about 9.45am. Please forward all sponsorship to School Council.
