

Parwich Primary School

It has been yet another action packed year at Parwich. With each day promising an exciting approach to the curriculum.

I always have very mixed feelings when it actually comes to the end of each academic year.

We are, of course, all looking forward to the summer holiday, which provides an opportunity for us to relax, reflect on the past year and plan for the new one.

At the same time, it is always sad to say goodbye to our children and their families – and in particular those children in Year 6 who have given so much to the school during the years they have shared with us.

A Big Thank You to you all !

Another year is over and we would all like to thank children and parents for their hard work and support.

Building Works

During the summer break, lots will be going on at school in the way of building work. We are very pleased that our junior storage area is about to be refurbished and updated and will then become a fully functioning cloakroom/storage area. The main entrance is to be decorated and given the new title of The Meeting Room.

The Early Years Outdoor Area is also receiving attention to ensure staff are able to deliver a broad and balanced Early Years curriculum in a safe and child friendly environment. All these building alterations will, I am sure, prove to be a real asset to our school and we look forward to seeing the work completed when we come back after the summer.

Goodbye to our Year 6 Children

As I have said in my introduction to this newsletter, although we know that the departure of our Year 6 children is inevitable, we are still always regretful that we shall be losing so many delightful children at the end of each academic year.

This year is no exception and I would like to pay tribute to all the contributions that these children have made to the school during their final year at Parwich. All of our Year 6 have grown and matured to become responsible, caring members of our school community. Some have acted as Eco Committee or School Council Leaders, and have played a fantastically important role throughout the year, eager to offer support when noticing that other children have been in need of assistance. Their help has been invaluable and many younger children have benefited from their reassuring presence in the playground and around school. Our Year 6 pupils have been great ambassadors for the school when on trips and residential visits, and over the years we have received many favourable comments about them.

We are sorry to see them depart and will miss their individual personalities. However, we know that they are ready for the new experiences and adventures that await them at secondary school and wish each one of them much success in the future.

Our special thanks go to all the parents and carers of our Year 6 children. You have helped them in so many ways throughout their years at Parwich, and offered so much goodwill and support to our school, too. We look forward to seeing you at PTA events in the future, and to hearing all about your children's successes.
